It is with great pleasure that we inform you of four days of “viewings” occurring in a suite at the legendary Drake Hotel in Chicago, timed to coincide with ExpoChicago 2018, to be held at historic Navy Pier in mid-September. Our presence at the Drake Hotel from Thursday, September 27th through Sunday, September 30th will allow us to present, in an informal setting, a diverse selection of Gemini editions including works by John Baldessari, Tacita Dean, Ann Hamilton, Ellsworth Kelly, Robert Rauschenberg, Ed Ruscha, Richard Serra, Joel Shapiro, Richard Tuttle and others.

Additionally, we want to inform you of a solo-artist presentation of works by Ann Hamilton at ExpoChicago. Presented with the assistance of our gallery, the Long-Sharp Gallery booth #440 at Expo will be entirely devoted to Hamilton. Hamilton is no stranger to Chicago: she served as the Bill and Stephanie Sick Distinguished Visiting Professor at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago in 2016-2017; her work, The Equal and Inalienable Rights of All, 2017, published by Gemini, is in the permanent collection of the Art Institute of Chicago; and she was awarded an honorary doctorate at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago in 2005. Hamilton is likely best known for her large-scale, site-specific installations, public projects, and performance art. Often working between large architectures and what she calls “lap scaled” work, on view at ExpoChicago will be approximately three dozen of Hamilton’s prints and unique smaller scale works.

We hope that you will make time to visit Navy Pier as well as our suite at the Drake.

If you are unable to attend but would like to recommend this to friends or colleagues, please feel free to pass along this invitation. An rsvp to attend is not required but of course would be appreciated.
